NO BULLYING: Key stage two children at Ripple Primary School.

Pupils spread out the word to support anti-bullying campaign

PUPILS at Ripple primary school took positive action against bullying this week.

The school in Suffolk Road, Barking works closely with all youngsters to make sure that bullying is not tolerated.

Roger Mitchell, headteacher at the school said: "The pupils and staff of Ripple Primary School are proud to support Anti-Bullying week.

"This is something that we do every year. It is an annual event in the school calendar."

With the slogan 'Stop and think - words can hurt this year's national campaign is focused on tackling verbal bullying.

Councillor Rocky Gill, Cabinet Member for Education and Children, said: "I would like to praise the 360 pupils that took part in the photograph to show their support to the campaign."

POLICE INITIATIVE TO STOP METAL THEFTS

BARKING and Dagenham police say they are determined to end the local trade in stolen metal.

Officers visited 20 scrap metal merchants to inspect their record keeping last week.

They were also looking for metal marked with security fluids such as Smartwater, which identifies the owner.

Ten officers took part in the visits along with Trading Standards Officers from Barking and Dagenham Council.

Police say metal theft can often leave structures unsafe and can endanger lives.

Inspector Richard Thomas, who coordinated the initiative said: "The entire community is affected by the theft of metal. From companies, businesses, places of worship, community buildings, private homes and the travelling public and the effects are not purely financial.

"There is a serious risk to life for both the person stealing the metal and the people who live their lives around the unsafe structures that can collapse as a result of the metal being stripped away."

Inspector Vicky Gollege said they had not found any failures in the record keeping of the scrap metal dealers they visited.

Since 2007 there have been three deaths in Barking and Dagenham related to metal theft.

Insp Gollege added: "Any licensed merchant who is found to be trading in stolen metal will be relieved of their licence to trade."

If you know of anyone who is involved in the theft, sale or receipt of stolen metal call police on 101 or call Crimestoppers anonymously. In an emergency always dial 999."

Eva helps out with fundraiser

A YOUNG girl and her pet Miniature Schnauzer have been named the highest fundraisers for a sponsored dog walk.

Eva Alexander, 11, from Brentwood, and her dog Ollie, took part in Saint Francis Hospice's first Wags and Tails dog walk at Ingatestone Hall in September.

They were presented with a trophy on Monday, November 14 for raising £860 for the charity, which is close to the family's hearts as Eva's grandma, Elieen Hamblin, was cared for as an inpatient before she sadly died in July.

Eva, who goes to the Anglo European School in Ingatestone, was pleased she was able to raise the money for the Hospice.

Light up a life for hospice

FLAME: Pam Court lights a candle to launch Light Up A Life.

REMEMBER your loved ones at a series of services.

Saint Francis Hospice, in Havering-ate-Bower, will be holding its annual Light Up A Life events at the start of December.

They are open to everyone, and feature carols and candle lighting.

Hospice chaplain, Graham Laut, said: "These services are very powerful. They are part of the spiritual and emotional support we provide to families and friends of patients."

Light Up A Life will be at St Margaret's Church, in Barking; Brentwood Cathedral and St Thomas' Church, in Brentwood on Sunday, December 4, and at Trinity Methodist Church, Romford, and Gants Hill Methodist Church on Tuesday, December 6.

Services will also take place at South West Essex & Settlement Reform Synagogue, Ilford on Saturday, December 10 and at the Liberty Shopping Centre, Romford, on December 14.

Man sentenced for charity thefts

A MAN has been convicted of stealing charity bags of clothing worth more than £40,000.

Arnas Gasiuna, 27, appeared at Basildon Crown Court on Monday where he was found guilty of taking the bags from charity clothes bins or snatching them from doorsteps to sell on for a huge profit in Poland.

Detectives were first alerted to the thefts in 2010 when they were contacted by a voluntary worker from the charity Clothes Aid.

They had been informed by various charities that bags were vanishing throughout the UK but particularly in and around Redbridge, Havering and Barking and Dagenham.

The court heard the bags were being taken to an industrial site at Ferry Lane in Rainham.

Investigating officers were able to trace the bags to a lorry site and container yard.

They discovered one shipping container filled with more than 3,000 bags of clothing, weighing more than 20 tonnes, which were all due to be transported to Eastern Europe to be sold for a significant profit.

The bags were still clearly marked with UK charity logos and should have been sold to raise money for the NSPCC, the PDSA and the British Heart Foundation.

Gasiuna was arrested at the scene in Rainham in October as he tried to load the bags for shipping.

Gasiuna, of South Esk Road, Forest Gate, but formerly from Poland, was later charged with five counts of handling stolen goods.

He will now be sentenced at Basildon Crown Court on Monday, November 28.

New DVD helps to rediscover Upminster

IF YOU think you know all about Upminster, there might be more to learn, thanks to a new DVD.

Film maker Mike Jones has teamed up with local historian Richard Moorey to produce Undiscovered Upminster, a 60 minute DVD which takes the viewer on a tour round the town looking at the buildings and the people who lived there.

The film tells the stories of some of Upminster's most influential families, like the Esdailes, the Branfils, the Abrahams and the Roomes.

Mr Jones said he had enjoyed making the feature.

He explained: "Despite living here for most of my life, I didn't realise how many treasures you pass by every day without realising their past."

"Upminster's got a rich past, and the people who have lived here over the centuries have fascinating stories to tell."

The DVD is available from Swan bookstore, Corbets Tey Road, and online at www.undiscoveredupminster.com

Council clean up decaying car park

By Peter Henn

RESIDENTS and shoppers are celebrating after a car park was given a makeover.

The Como Street Car Park, Romford, had been left to decay for more than 40 years – but now it has been renovated.

The facility has had 85 per cent of its area resurfaced, parking bays have been repainted, and overgrown weeds have been removed, as well as 12 lighting columns put in.

Shopper Janice Bacon, from Becontree, said she was pleased to be able to use the car park again.

She explained: "It used to be really awful, and you really didn't want to park here."

"I'm so happy they've cleared it up. I come to Romford to do my shopping at least twice a week, and all I can say is that I hope they don't put the charges up."

Resident Andrew McCallum, whose home on Como Street is opposite the entrance to the car park, said he was glad the changes had been made.

He said: "It had been really bad for such a long time, but now it's been cleaned up, it's really nice.

"I can see into Romford now. The other good thing is that now it looks nicer, more people are going to use it."

The chairman of Brooklands Residents Association, Eamon Mahon, has lobbied the council on the matter.

He said: "I have to give the council credit on this. Before, it looked terrible, and it wasn't a good advert for Romford. Now, it's somewhere people can leave their cars and not worry."

Havering Council's lead member for Streetcare, Barry Tebbutt

(Conservative, Brooklands) said he hoped the works would lead to more people using the car park.

He added: "We are pleased with the positive feedback we've had from residents."

"It's not completely finished, we still need to tidy up some areas and install the LED lamps – but we hope these measures will bring the carpark up to ParkMark standard for safe carparks."

The council has also said it is looking in to resurfacing the remaining 15 per cent of the car park, and there were no plans to increase charges.

HALLOWEEN has come and gone and we hope our YA readers garnered plenty of inspiration from the ghosts, ghouls, monsters and witches.

Yellow Advertiser's Ghost Story Competition 2011 is now open for entries and we're looking for your scariest yarns.

road test

Peugeot charges ahead with iOn

by Andy Enright

FOR all the talk of zero emission vehicles, very few actually reach the stage where the public can buy one. Peugeot's iOn is different. Now eligible for a £5,000 Government grant and with a six-hour plug-in recharge time giving a range of up to 80 miles, it's got enough about it to make it viable, albeit largely for image conscious urban businesses.

For the last few years virtually every mainstream car manufacturer has been broadcasting their commitment to zero-emission vehicles. Peruse their price lists, however, and for many of them the greenest thing on their books remains a turbodiesel city car or, if they're a bit bolder, a petrol-electric hybrid. Not Peugeot though. It's gone the whole hog and has brought to market a fully electric, plug-in rechargeable city car called the iOn.

It's worth bearing in mind that the iOn isn't one of those 'quadricycles' that are about as crash resistant as a greenhouse. This is a proper car with all the requisite safety systems. That's not to say Peugeot hasn't taken a short cut, and a huge one at that. Many of you will recognise that the iOn is effectively a rebadged Mitsubishi i-MiEV. It seems even lions aren't above a bit of opportunistic scavenging and, of course, Citroen has used exactly the same play with its C-Zero.

After you've got over the fact that the iOn doesn't sound like a milk float and that you have to resist the temptation to bump other road users like dodgems, the iOn is surprisingly good fun. The permanent magnet synchronous motor is powered by a lithium-ion battery system and develops 64bhp from 3,000 to 6,000rpm. The real clincher is a maximum torque figure of 180Nm that's available instantly from 0 to 2000rpm which gives the little Peugeot a surprising amount of verve as it steps off the mark. The batteries can be charged by plugging the supply cord into a household 240-volt socket or using an industrial 400-volt supply which provides a 50 per cent charge in only fifteen minutes, or 80 per cent in thirty minutes.

The iOn has a simpler transmission than its Japanese-market cousin. Use the first portion of throttle travel and the iOn is in Eco mode; give it a firmer prod and it surrenders the remaining power. On the road, the iOn has a top speed of 80mph, a 0-62mph time of 15 seconds and a range of around 150km, or a little under a hundred miles over a standard combined cycle. Driver behaviour and traffic conditions will have a bearing on the range. For example, use of the heater can reduce range by between 5 and 45 per cent while air conditioning can dent your range by between five and 25 per cent on a hot day.

Aside from the fact that you're very aware there's not a lot of metal in front of your seating position, the interior of the iOn feels fairly conventional, if rather narrow. Two big blokes might rub shoulders in one but it offers more space than you might expect for such a short vehicle. This is because the propulsion system is very compact and the underfloor batteries don't impinge too much on cabin space. There's actually more space in the back of the iOn than in most city cars and you get five doors as well. Do not count on carrying much baggage, though, as the boot is tiny with the rear seats in place.

The notion of 'buying' an iOn only serves to underscore quite how different it is. In short, you cannot.

Peugeot instead offers a lease scheme whereby for £415 (ex-VAT) per month you get an 'all-inclusive' 40,000 mile, four year contract. This includes the lease of the vehicle (the battery pack is considered part of the vehicle), full warranty cover for the vehicle, battery and electric power train for the period of the lease, full servicing and full maintenance for four years and 40,000 miles and use of Peugeot Connect Services. This includes PC or smartphone access to information about battery charging locations, and more detailed information about the car's battery charging status, a feature similar to an i-Phone app developed for the Electric Drive version of the Smart ForTwo. In addition, Peugeot's Mu mobility service offers access to alternative vehicles that could be used for, say, one-off trips requiring a longer range than the iOn can provide.

It's tricky to consider the iOn's cost of ownership while trying to ignore the elephant in the room that is the up-front 'purchase' package. Clamber beyond that and you have a car that typically costs around £2.50 in electricity to run for 120 miles. You also get low servicing costs and downtime - with only approximately four working parts compared to over 300 in a typical internal combustion engine. This car is exempt from road tax (saving approx £300 per annum), has zero benefit-in-kind company car tax, attracts a lower rate of VAT for domestic electricity, is exempt from congestion charges (saving up to £2,000 per annum in London) and qualifies for free parking in many London boroughs, and cities such as Milton Keynes. Take these figures for a business operating in London as an example. No petrol or diesel costs - potential saving of £1515 per year - and no parking charges where applicable (eg City of Westminster) would add another potential saving of £1939 per year (£10 x 230 days of parking, less admin fee). That's already £3,454 clawed back from the £4,980 it costs to lease the vehicle. If your existing vehicle wasn't congestion charge exempt, that saving would move to £5150 per year. Suddenly the maths start working in your favour.

The Peugeot iOn is an electric car that works and works well. It's not the cheapest car to lease but if you are in a specific position, the sums can work out and Peugeot has already had enthusiastic take up from metropolitan businesses. The iOn works surprisingly well as a low mileage urban commuter, although to get the best out of it, you'll need to have a high capacity 400V power supply.

The 150km range tends to engender a bit of 'range anxiety' when driving it but as long as you're not too heavy with the throttle, it'll manage most duties with ease and, yes, Peugeot Connect is included in the leasing fee and they'll come to your assistance in the event of your batteries running flat.

If you work for an environmentally-conscious business, the Peugeot iOn looks like it could offer something refreshingly different.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. 'Classified' Advertising offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', 'TY' etc. in the advertisement.
3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertiser will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified image and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. ## Barking lose again

Rugby Union

BARKING'S problems in National League One continue, losing to fellow relegation battlers Wharfedale 29-3 on Saturday.

Tries from Tom Davidson, Rob Baldwin, Dan Hart and Luke Gray earned the home side the win plus the bonus point, with Chris Ashwin kicking a penalty for Barking's only points.

Southend ran up the points in National Two South thanks to their 62-29 victory over Lydney.

Two tries apiece from Mark Billings, Martin Freeman and Michael Guess plus efforts from Billy Driver, Danny Cleare and Nick Grier saw Southend run riot. Andrew Frost got proceedings underway with the first try and also went on to kick six conversions.

Westcliff remain in trouble in National League Three London & South East, losing 31-14 to third place Tring.

In London One North, Thurrock head the table thanks to their 3-59 victory at mid-table Chingford.

Colchester relinquished their lead following their surprise 18-16 defeat at Eton Manor.

Brentwood lost ground after losing 7-24 to fourth place Diss, while Rochford Hundred hover above the drop zone thanks to their 50-25 loss at Old Colfeians.

Romford & Gidea Park have a nine point lead in London Two North East after winning 22-15 over Lowestoft & Yarmouth.

Basildon keep up the chase in second, winning 27-15 against bottom side Beccles, while Chelmsford's lost out in to third place Enfield Ignatians by 13-37.

Woodford registered their second win of the season over Canvey Island 26-15, to close the gap between them.

In London Three North East, Upminster lost to second place Harlow 34-15, while South Woodham Ferrers won 41-10 against Wymondham in a mid-table affair.

Wanstead went down 11-17 to Norwich while Campion lifted themselves off the bottom thanks to their 27-14 success over Sudbury.

The Conqueror rules

ROMFORD boxer Tony Conquest won his eighth straight professional fight with a 10 round points decision over Toks Owoh on Saturday night.

The 27-year-old won the vacant Southern Area cruiserweight title after only turning professional two years ago.

The Conqueror was never put under pressure by 39-year-old Owoh, who came into the fight unbeaten in four.

Conquest will now look for a British title fight against newly crowned cruiserweight champion Leon Williams.

Daggers felled by Ferdinand double

Dagenham & Redbridge

TWO goals from Kane Ferdinand helped League Two leaders Southend United claim derby spoils with their 3-2 at Dagenham & Redbridge on Saturday, dropping the latter into the relegation zone in the process.

The Blues took the lead on eight minutes through Ferdinand but the Daggers levelled thanks to on-loan debutant Cristian Montano five minutes later.

Liam Dickinson edged the Shrimpers ahead after the half hour mark, but Dagenham struck back four minutes into the second half through Abu Ogogo.

Despite huge Daggers pressure, Ferdinand scored the crucial goal on 64 minutes to give the Blues their fifth straight League Two win, and inflict a seventh straight defeat for the Daggers.

Despite the defeat, Daggers boss John Still was still pleased with his side.

He said: "All-round we were very competitive. Chris Lewington didn't have a save to make in the second half. "They are a top side, but I was delighted with our performance."

Ferdinand struck with the first chance of the game, sliding the ball home after Ryan Hall provided the tricks on the left.

But the Daggers hit back immediately with on loan West Ham United striker Montano making a sudden impact, finding space in the box before his shot squirmed through the legs of Blues keeper Luke Daniels.

Southend pressed on with Hall firing inches wide from 25 yards and Michael Timlin bringing a save from Daggers keeper Chris Lewington.

The pressure told on 33 minutes when Bilel Mohsni found Dickinson who slotted home into the bottom corner.

The Daggers came out all guns blazing in the second half and their fast start was rewarded when Ogogo let fly from 25 yards which smashed the top corner.

The hosts dominated the possession without creating clear cut chances and it was against the run of play Southend went ahead.

Dickinson picked out Ferdinand's run, who rounded Lewington and tapped the ball home.

Dagenham chased for the equaliser with Damien McCrory's set-pieces causing problems.

Michael Spillane and Phil Walsh came close with headers, while Daniels produced a point blank save to keep out Mantano's header from Richard Rose's cross with five minutes to go.

Blues boss Paul Sturrock admitted his side were fortunate to hang on to the three points.

He said: "If I was the manager of Dagenham I'd be very disappointed to get nothing out of the game. We were second best in the second half, but we battled hard and I was pleased for Kane Ferdinand.

"I've said too many times three or four performances have not been up to standard, but we're still churning out results."

Clarets thump Bromley while Fleet gain crucial win

Non-League Football

CHELMSFORD City maintained fifth spot in Blue Square South with their 6-1 demolition of Bromley at Melbourne Stadium on Saturday.

Three goals in 14 minutes from Kezie Ibe (16), David Rainford (pen 21) and Max Cornhill (30) set the Clarets on their way, with second half goals Michael Bakare (52), Joe Benjamin (84) and Craig Parker (90) sealing the convincing win. Lewis Taylor (79) scored a consolation for the visitors.

Thurrock relegated Staines Town to the bottom spot with a 2-0 win at fellow strugglers Hampton & Richmond Borough.

A double from Lee Boylan (28, 73) was enough for Fleet to register a long overdue victory.

AFC Hornchurch kept up the pressure on Ryman League Premier leaders Lowestoft Town with a 3-1 win at Hastings United.

Martin Tuohy (22), Lewis Smith (23) and Jonathan Hunt (71) were on target, with Zac Attwood (86) netting a consolation.

A Richard Halle penalty (11) and a goal from Emika Onwukiko (14) was enough for Billericay Town in their 2-1 win at Hendon. Isisah Rankin scored in second half stoppage time but Town stay third.

Canvey Island came back from behind to win 2-1 at Wealdstone.

The hosts took the lead through Wes Parker's 19th minute header but the game turned when Peter Dean was dismissed for the hosts before the end of the first half.

Jay Curran and a Rob King penalty completed the Gulls' comeback.

Aveley struck late to win 2-1 over Horsham. Ray Freeman headed Horsham ahead on 28 minutes, but two goals in three minutes for the Millers changed the complexion of the match.

Danny Francis equalised on 72 minutes before Nicky Humphrey was dismissed for the visitors.

Cedric Ngakam netted the win for Aveley soon after.

It was goals galore between Bury Town and East Thurrock United with the latter losing 5-2 to drop to the bottom.

All the goals came in the first half when the Rocks went 2-0 down to Lee Reed (8) and John Sands (13), but Sam Higgins (14) pulled a goal back soon after.

The two-goal advantage was restored for Bury by Sam Nunn (25) but back came Rocks once again through Kye Ruel's header (31).

But Billy Clark (36) and a second for Sands (42) put the game in Town's favour.

Concord Rangers earned their second win of the season, winning 1-0 over Harrow Borough.

Tony Stokes (88) struck late to earn the Trawlerboys their first three points at home.

Grays Athletic kept up the pressure on Ryman League Division One North leaders Needham Market with a 3-1 victory over Potters Bar Town. Joao Carlos (11), Leon McKenzie (60) and David Cowley leaves the Blues one point behind Needham. Potters Bar did make a game for it with Rob Magwood netting their equaliser.

Needham Market won 4-0 at Waltham Abbey. The goals came from Duane Wright who scored a double, Sam Newson and Jose Espinosa.

Brentwood Town recorded a 5-0 win over struggling Great Wakering Rovers.

Two late goals from Lee Blackburn added to efforts from Ryan Doyle, an own goal from Nick Skelton and Darren Blewitt.

Tilbury are just behind in sixth thanks to Alex Read's 89th minute goal.

Heybridge Swifts drew 1-1 at Harlow Town, while James Robinson scored twice in Redbridge's 2-1 win at Cheshunt.

Ilford remain at the bottom after losing 1-0 at Thamesmead Town, Lea Dawson on the scoresheet, while Waltham Forest suffered a 5-0 home defeat to high-flying Leiston.

West Ham United

Irons fightback

WEST Ham United came from behind to beat Coventry City at the Ricoh Arena on Saturday to keep up the pressure up on Championship leaders Southampton.

It did not look good for the Irons who went behind in the first half through Clive Platt's goal.

But Hammers boss Sam Allardyce brought on Carlton Cole and Freddie Piquionne and both scored a goal apiece to turn around the game.

Allardyce said: "I can call myself the master tactician. It's another valuable three points towards our target and for only the second time we are exactly where we want to be which is 34 points after 17 games."

The home side took the lead on 33 minutes when Cryus Christie fired in a low cross and Platt turned and shot into the back of the net.

It could have been 2-0 but Platt missed a header and desperate Hammers defending denied Gary McSheffrey as the first half was brought to a close.

Lukas Jutkiewicz brought a fantastic save from Robert Green ten minutes into the second half before the game was changed on its head on 69 minutes.

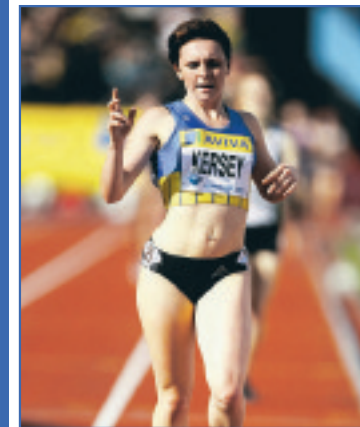

Green's long kick downfield was picked up by Cole who shot home from 12 yards.

Six minutes later and the Irons had the lead when Julien Faubert's cross was met by Piquionne to score.

Coventry had their chances to equalise, with Platt heading wide and Conor Thomas and Sammy Clingan both denied by blocks from Kevin Nolan.

Jack Collison was guilty of missing from six yards out when it was easier to score late on, but the 6,300 travelling support - the largest following West Ham have had since 2004 - saw their side bag the three points.

Athletics

Kersey wins in Spain

A YOUNG female athlete from Havering won the Under-20's women's cross country meeting in Spain on her first international appearance.

Gemma Kersey, who runs for Basildon Athletics Club, represented England in the meeting in Burgos earlier this month.

She ran away from the field at the halfway point of the 3.9km course to win by 18 seconds ahead of three Spanish athletes.

Gemma is one of four athletes at Basildon who is being helped by a grant the club was awarded.

She will now focus on the Under-20 European Trial held this Saturday in Liverpool.

If successful, Gemma could make the Great Britain team for the European cross country in Slovenia on December 11.
